with Sally

We tried to explain to the Editor how it was this week that we could not possibly write our column. But the Editor is a hard man. And besides, he likes to skate.

You might think that ice-skating has nothing to do with it. We only wish to heaven that it didn't!

We were a little doubtful about going to begin with.

"Oh, come on, Sally," urged the Editor. "It's as easy as eating Goodness candies. It's as easy as pie from the Geneva Bakery. It's as easy as watching Garbo at the Daly City theatre."

There was a gleam in his eye and we knew that the speech was on.

"It's as easy as dancing with the Night Owls. It's as easy as—"

"We'll go," we interrupted hastily. Much too hastily, much, much too rashly!

We did have the good judgment to fortify ourselves first with a sandwich of crisp lettuce and cold boiled ham from the Daly City Cut Rate Market, topped off by three glasses of tomato juice from Lucca Ravioli's.

Our first serious misgiving did not strike us until we were at the ice-rink being laced tightly into a ballet-shoe-and-razor-blade combination, which put our feet to sleep and made us doubt the laws of gravitation.

Clinging to thoughts of the "Star Spangled Banner," with John on one elbow and the Editor on the other, we tentatively rose to our feet. Our legs gave way at odd angles, the room reeled, we sat down on the bench again very hard.

John and the Editor exchanged significant glances. We looked around wildly for our faithful Bosco shoes, but a smug young man had already checked them.

We wavered toward the ice. All around us were yelling youngsters like fish in the sea. We thought longingly of our nice game of whist with the Native Daughters next Wednesday.

We really don't know how to tell you the rest of this. Never was ice so slippery. We clung to the rail like a drowning man to a straw. Around us was poetry, grace, motion and laughter—but beneath us, how hard was the ice! After we picked ourselves up for the third time we realized that Beeson Cleaners were going to wonder what had happened to this skirt.

We were cold and numb. Time passed. We were more cold and numb. Queer hallucinations passed through our mind—hot, fragrant coffee from Westlake Market; fresh doughnuts from Waxman's Bakery; steaming vegetable soup from Milo's Market; a cozy chair by our new Zenith radio from Byrne's.

Another sudden shock and we were sitting on the ice again. Our heart filled with a bitter black despair as we saw John and the Editor flying by as though born to the purple.

Perhaps it's only a lack of confidence, we told ourselves. Throw a dog into the water and he will swim.

We let loose of the rail. We felt we were treading on eggs. Eggs reminded us of Robertson's Egg Store. And Robertson's Egg Store reminded us of home.

We swallowed the lump in our throat and struck out across the ice. We didn't seem to be the captain of our soul any more; the ice began rising and falling; people were shouting—

There really is no use in prolonging this. Hours later John and the Editor rescued us from our corner.

"Boy, what I wouldn't give for a steak from Farmer's Meat Company!" exclaimed the Editor, rubbing his hands together. "Boy, oh, boy! And a bottle of red port from Vireno's Market!"

But John saw the handwriting on the wall. He began to help us off with our skates in a worried and apologetic manner. "Little tough the first time," he ventured, "but you'll love it when you get used to it, Sally." He looked at us, started to elaborate on the joys of skating, and changed his mind.

Our friends have all brought us flowers from the Daly City Nursery. Our aunt rubs us with liniment from Edwards every quarter of an hour. John sent the entire washing to the New Process Laundry. Our uncle paid for a new permanent for us from La Cerna Beauty Salon.

But life still seems a very bitter affair. After all, what are flowers and permanents if you have a black eye, a swollen jaw and can't move a muscle if your life depended upon it?

Lake George Discovery

Lake George was discovered in 1646 by Father Isaac Jogues, known as the French ambassador of peace to the Indians. A statue of the priest and explorer has recently been unveiled on the shores of the lake.

'Unfinished Business'

In a study of 'Unfinished Business' in America, one authority reports that 200,000 railroad grade crossings are yet to be eliminated, 20,000,000 families are still without telephones, one out of five families lacks a radio, and only 30 per cent of U. S. water power is developed.

Strawberry Grapes

At Cannoza in Jugoslavia, one of the chief delicacies is the "strawberry grape," a grape very like our Concord grape, with a strawberry flavor.

Leap Year Supper Party

by Dorothy Greig

LEAP YEAR will see many parties ..... parties at which the accepted social amenities go into reverse, and the wooer becomes the wooed. So up and at 'em, girls! We'll show our partners how things should really be done.

Since a party of this type is decidedly informal, keep refreshments informal, too. You might serve the following which would please everybody:

LEAP YEAR SUPPER

Tomato Juice with Lemon
*Broiled Hamburgers with French Onion Rings on Toast
Tossed Green Salad with French Dressing
Assorted Cheese with Crackers
Coffee

*The French Onion Rings are made this way:

2 tablespoons butter
3 onion rings (sliced ½ inch thick)
1 can condensed consommé
2-3 tablespoons grated cheese (Parmesan or sharp)

Cut large onions into slices ½ inch thick. Brown the slices on each side in the melted, hot butter. Pour the consommé over the onion slices and cook 30-40 minutes or until tender. Sprinkle the rings with Parmesan or grated sharp cheese and brown under the broiler. Serves 8.

Cooking Lesson

Left at home to cook his supper while his wife was at the movies, a 28-year-old husband in Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, became so alarmed when the porridge boiled over and filled the kitchen with steam that he rushed to the theater, calling loudly for his mate. The attendants objected to this disturbance of the performance, but the frenzied man threatened them with violence if they interfered. Charged at the police court with disorderly conduct, he was bound over for 12 months.

Dizzy in Donegal

Arbitrary Date Line

The International Date Line is an irregular line which is drawn somewhat arbitrarily on the map of the Pacific ocean, near the 180th meridian of longitude. This line marks the place where navigators "change their date" on the trans-Pacific voyage. The line is drawn on the map in a general north-and-south direction, separating the islands of the Pacific ocean in such a manner that all those in the east carry the same date as the United States, and those in the west the same date as Japan and Australia.

Night Owls Dance Saturday Night

Saturday, February 17, is the date set for the Night Owls' semi-monthly dance at Lovchen Gardens.

After the unprecedented attendance at their jitterbug contests, which lasted over a period of two months, Night Owls expect their subsequent dances to be important highlights in the activities of the younger set in Daly City, Colma and South San Francisco.

Club officials extended a personal invitation to all dance devotees to have fun with the Night Owls, Saturday night. A Leap Year dance is planned for the near future, they added.

Native Daughters Plan Whist Feb. 21

Native Daughters of the Golden West, El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, will hold a mammoth whist party, next Wednesday, at Masonic hall, it was announced today.

There will be several outstanding prizes and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The whist will be under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Steele, charter president of the parlor, with the following charter members assisting her: Mary May, Katie Wight, Matilda Heeringa, Hattie Kelly, Julia Sturla, Bertha Grady, Margaret Kane, Annie Manning, Flora Olivieri and all parlor members.

The benefit whist for the Daly City Juvenile Drum Corps, previously announced for the evening of February 21, has been changed to March 5.

Recreation Activities Draw 100,000 Last Year

Jerry Hull, WPA Recreation publicity director for San Mateo county, today announced that there had been 102,091 participants in recreation activities in Daly City last year.

"Because of our 1940 program being more diversified, we expect a much larger participant record this year," stated Hull.

Formerly recreation director of the Daly City unit, Hull is well remembered here. During his term of office, he made a wide circle of friends both for himself and his department, and contributed largely to the development of recreation in this community.

Wild Flowers on Rainier

A total of 556 varieties of wildflowers bloom on the alpine meadows of Mt. Rainier, three-mile-high snow peak in Washington state.

Chase Away Menu Monotony with Orleans Chocolate Layer Cake!

Hear the murmurs of pleasure when the family tastes this cake!

• Here's a layer cake with the well-loved flavor of old-fashioned chocolate-covered molasses candy. A little molasses gives the frosting a delicate, delightful tang, as well as a lovely fawn color. Chocolate decorettes rim the cake, making a striking finish for the satiny swirls of frosting. And the cake itself is even grained, "chocolatey" and velvet-textured. Serve Orleans Chocolate Layer Cake for parties or for a special dessert, most any time—it always creates a sensation.

Lovely to look at —easy to make

Here's where you "skyrocket" your reputation for fine cooking—and so easily! Just follow the simple directions at the right, but be sure to use the new triple-creamed shortening, Spry, because you do want to have that luscious flavor, that feathery lightness.

Surprise the family—serve Orleans Chocolate Layer Cake today. Don't forget, these tender chocolate layers are delicious with other frostings, too.

Orleans Chocolate Layer Cake

½ cup Spry (triple-creamed shortening)
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, unbeaten
2 ounces chocolate, melted
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
2 cups sifted flour
1 cup milk

Blend Spry, salt, and vanilla. Add sugar gradually and cream well.

Add eggs, singly, beating well after each addition.

Add melted chocolate and blend well.

Sift baking powder and soda with flour 3 times. Add flour to creamed mixture, alternately with milk, mixing after each addition until smooth.

Bake in two 8-inch Spry-greased layer pans in moderate oven (350°F.) 30 minutes.

Orleans Frosting

2 egg whites
1½ cups sugar
3 tablespoons water
1 tablespoon light molasses
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
½ teaspoon vanilla
Chocolate decorettes

Put egg whites, sugar, water, molasses, and cream of tartar in top of double boiler and mix thoroughly. Place over rapidly boiling water and beat constantly with rotary egg beater until mixture will hold a peak (about 7 minutes).

Remove from fire, add vanilla, and beat until thick enough to spread.

Spread frosting between layers, making swirls on top. Sprinkle chocolate decorettes around edge of cake, making an attractive border.

(All measurements in these recipes are level).

Legal Death

In most American states a person absent seven years without explanation may legally be presumed to be dead.

Public Invited To Benefit Whist

Tonight, February 16, is the date when Daly City's whist players will gather at Masonic hall for the monster card party to be given for the benefit of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church.

There will be a large cash first prize and several other outstanding awards, the committee announces.

Playing will begin at 8:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Cure That Slice

Inspired by the increasing use of mirrors by college swimmers and oarsmen to improve their strokes, sporting goods dealers, Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass company reports, are boosting business by installing large plate glass mirrors so that customers for golf and tennis equipment may be entranced by "first-hand observation of their own form.

Impulses Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.

George and Millie

(Editor's Note: Technical information for this series has been supplied by The New Process Laundry.)

Dear Folks:

Well, things are a bit more pleasant this week—I've forgiven George, but life is no bowl of cherries even so. George has come to the statistics part of his work. I always dread that.

He'll say, "You know, Millie, statistics are far more important than anyone realizes! Why, with a simple index one may show—" and there he's off to the races while dinner is reduced to a cold and clammy mass.

For instance, I was struggling with boiling the baby's diapers and he comes out to the kitchen and remarks, standing right in my way, of course, that less than 35 per cent of the consuming public knows all of the advantages good laundering has to offer.

I opened my mouth to tell him that I certainly knew the advantages of a laundry's service and wished to heaven he'd let me prove my knowledge, but he went on, staring past me, the dirty clothes and the cloud of steam—"Eighty-seven per cent still believe that clothes last longer when washed at home. Isn't that idiotic, Millie?"

"It certainly is," I answered firmly, "I know better than that—if you'd just let me send our clothes to the—"

"Don't interrupt me, Millie," he ordered. "Why any woman would slave over just menial work at home is beyond me. Right here in the San Francisco area there are 190,000 families who can afford laundry service. Think what it would mean if those women would devote their time and talents to the major interests of their homes—the health and education of their children and the companionship and encouragement of their husbands—instead of wasting precious hours over the wash tub."

"That's just what I say, George. If you'd simply appropriate a few dollars a month I wouldn't have to slave like this."

I thought I had him at last but he looked at me vaguely and muttered "Is there anything to eat in this house?"

I was ready to kill him but just then the baby screamed. As I extricated her from a heap of broken flower pots on the sunporch I reflected that children certainly did need a mother's care.

I guess I can go on hoping something gives George the necessary jolt that makes him realize that I do our laundry at home, the old-fashioned way. Short of a good whack on the head I doubt if anything will, however.

Love,
Your Exasperated Millie

Football Trophy

The John W. Heisman Memorial trophy is awarded each year to the football player deemed the most valuable. It perpetuates the memory of a football coach and gridiron mentor at many colleges for 36 years. The Robert W. Maxwell trophy, also awarded to the outstanding player, is named in honor of Robert W. (Tuffy) Maxwell, a former all-America player, sports writer and gridiron official. The August V. Lambert Memorial trophy, emblematic of leadership among eastern gridiron teams, was donated by Victor A. and Henry L. Lambert of New York city in memory of their father, an ardent football fan.

Limburger Castles

In America, Limburg may only suggest cheese, but in Holland Limburg is notable chiefly for its fine churches and ancient and noble castles. Some of the finest old castles to be seen anywhere.

Have you ever tried PORK AND BEANS fixed like this?

by Dorothy Greig

Glazed ham and bean rolls make a savory dish for a cold day

GRANNIE in a boastful moment once claimed that she could make a company dish out of any food "even plain bread and milk". She used to say that the art of being a good cook consisted as much as anything in knowing how to vary and dress up simple, everyday foods.

I thought of that the other day when preparing one of my pet pork and beans dishes. Now pork and beans taste good heated just as they come from the can. But why stop there? That is just one of many ways of enjoying them.

For instance, pork and beans, mashed and mixed with relish make a hearty filling for toasted sandwiches. They are delicious as a salad combined with diced celery and a bit of onion and served on lettuce. Added to tomato soup they make a filling one-dish meal for Sunday night.

Or have you ever tried pork and beans dressed up a bit like this:

Glazed Ham and Bean Rolls

6 slices of ham (cut thin)
1½ teaspoons prepared mustard
1 can (16-oz.) pork and beans

Sauce for Glazing:

2 tablespoons dark brown sugar
2 tablespoons water

Spread the thin slices of ham with the prepared mustard. Empty the pork and beans into a bowl and mash slightly—so that beans will hold together when rolled in the ham. Put 1 spoonful of pork and beans on each slice of ham and roll. Put into a baking pan, this just fills a pan nine inches square. Baste with brown sugar syrup just before putting into the oven and baste once or twice while baking. Bake in a moderate oven (375°) for 25-30 minutes.

Another simple, but enormously good pork and beans dish is:

Savory Bean Casserole

2 cans pork and beans (16 oz. size)
6 slices bacon, cut in half
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1 tablespoon brown sugar

Empty one can of pork and beans into a casserole dish. Put two tablespoons of chili sauce and a layer of bacon over the beans. Then add the other layer of pork and beans, chili sauce, brown sugar and bacon. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 40-50 minutes. Serves 6-7.

Concord Grapes

In 1840 some boys of Concord, Mass., gathered wild grapes in the nearby woods. On their way home they threw some of the seeds on the land of Ephraim Bull. Mr. Bull preserved one of the seedlings that sprang up, and when it fruited he planted its seeds. One of the second generation of plants proved superior to the others, so he preserved this, which became the parent of that variety of grapes. Thus the "Concord" grapes.

Milk on the Hoof

In Sicily there is no milk problem for visitors daily see milk delivered "on the hoof." Goats are driven to one's door and their milk is drawn from them before the customer.

Kansas City Shakeup

The shakeup of the Kansas City police department has really brought results. Cleanup has extended beyond crime and politics. Now Saturday night baths will be given the —well—here's the story from the beginning. A police captain strolling through a park noticed the fish pond was scummy and the gold fish were mighty dingy. He ordered the water changed and each fish washed every Saturday night in a salt solution to brighten it up a bit.

Rope and Basket

Poland has a new thrill for visitors to Zakopane: a rope and basket passenger service from Kuznice to mountain peaks of the Carpathians, an aerial journey not to be duplicated elsewhere in eastern Europe.

Soap Nut Tree

Soap nut, the fruit of a handsome tree found throughout India, has been used to wash woolen fabrics, silks and jewelry since ancient times, even in preference to soap. Scientists today have learned to extract the essential matter, saponin, from the nut for use in the manufacture of soapless shampoos, as a foam stabilizer, and as an emulsifying agent for vegetable and essential oils.

Fish Skin Fibers

Textile fibers from fish skin are a new development of Italian research, it is reported to the American Chemical society. The fibers are said to have a solidity 25 per cent higher than that of natural silk.

Juvenile Drum Corps Whist Set For March 5

The date set for the benefit whist for the Daly City Juvenile Drum Corps has been changed from February 21 to March 5, it was announced this week.

Starting at 9 p. m., at Theater hall, the whist will be open to the public. There are to be many outstanding prizes, according to the committee in charge.

Welcome Soldiers

Darwin, isolated outpost of northern Australia where beer costs 2 shillings (50 cents) a bottle owing to high transport charges, has suffered a beer famine. Gladly the people of Darwin welcomed contingents of the Australian defense forces. Promptly these same troops drank all the beer in the town.

After Dark!! ... by Rice

What's New in Cooking

by Gertrude Orent

STRANGE foods and fancy foods are fine for variety. But, for a steady diet most families want the old, familiar favorites with just enough new touches to keep menus out of a rut. It takes a fine hand to strike just the proper balance of old and new in planning meals!

A pot roast with a new trick of seasoning, a combination of vegetables that's different, or an unusual frosting on a favorite cake—that's about as far as the homemaker with a fussy family dares to go. Occasionally, perhaps, when the family's in a mellow mood, she can score a hit with some unusual dish that doesn't in the least encroach on forbidden territory—on those favorites of long standing which must not, if Mrs. Homemaker values her peace of mind, be changed the tiniest bit!

Beef tongue with sour cherry sauce is an out-of-the-ordinary recipe, which is almost sure to satisfy even the hard-to-please family. And by the way, it's a grand way of using that deep well cooker on your electric range.

Beef Tongue with Sour Cherry Sauce

1 fresh beef tongue
¼ cup butter
½ cup honey
1 cup canned cherries (drained)
1 dozen whole cloves
1 tablespoon lemon juice

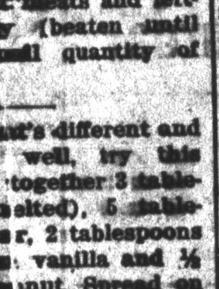

Wash tongue carefully. Place in deep well cooker, and cover with water. Cover and cook on low heat for about 2 hours. Add salt to taste. When the tongue is tender, remove from the stock and skin it. To one cup of the stock add remaining ingredients. Cook the tongue in this, still on low heat, for another hour. Chill and serve.

To make a delicious pudding sauce, combine nut meats and left-over bits of jelly (beaten until light) with a small quantity of whipped cream.

For a frosting that's different and failure proof as well, try this broiled icing: Mix together 3 tablespoons butter (melted), 5 tablespoons brown sugar, 2 tablespoons cream, ½ teaspoon vanilla and ½ cup shredded cocoanut. Spread on top of freshly baked cake, leaving the cake in the pan. Place on the broiler rack so that the top of the cake is about 4 inches below the broiling unit. Turn the switch to "broil" and broil until icing bubbles all over the surface and becomes brown.

Don't forget that you can toast bread for the entire family on the broiler pan of your electric range.

And speaking of broiling, scientists tell us that bending or stooping requires four times as much energy as standing. The broilers on modern electric ranges are planned to conserve energy; they're waist-high and convenient to use—no bending is necessary.

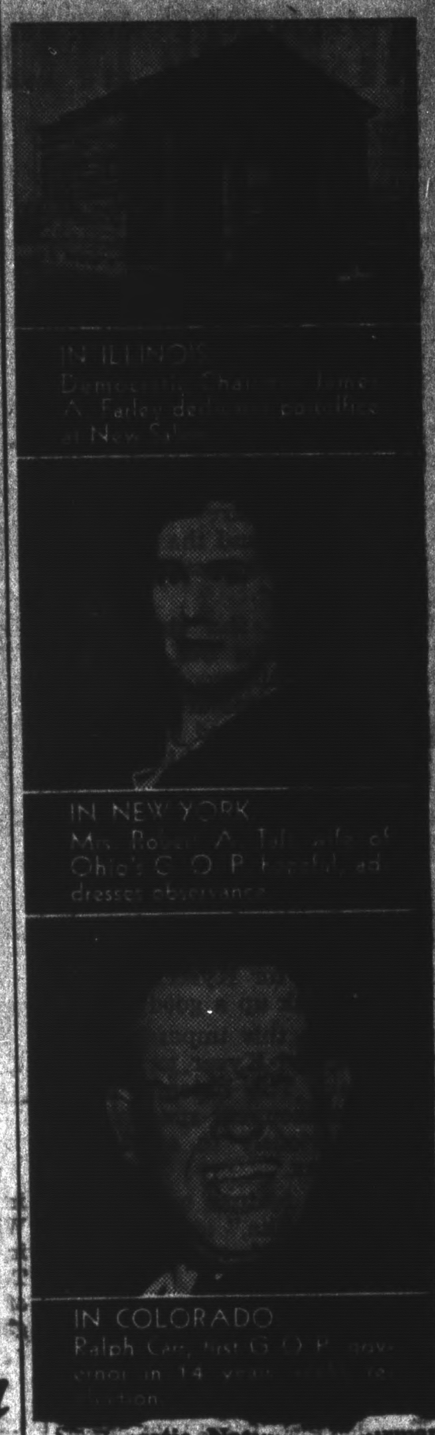

To improve the flavor of cherry, peach or apricot pies, add a few drops of almond extract to the filling. If fruit pies are a little flat in flavor add the juice of half a lemon. Lemon is particularly good in blueberry or huckleberry pies.

For an unusual fruit salad dressing, add the beaten yolk of one fully ripe banana to ½ cup of mayonnaise dressing.

Dems 'Join' Republicans In Lincoln Day Festival

Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley dedicated the log-cabin post office at New Salem, Illinois, Monday, but all other Lincoln day celebrations throughout the country were under Republican sponsorship. In addition to the gatherings in Colorado and New York, west coast Republicans heard New York District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey speaking at Portland, Oregon.

Wanted: One Wife

After all, there's nothing like being particular. From a farm in Boxville, Ky., 24-year-old Jes Ellis Baker went to Evansville, Ind., and asked police there to help him find a wife. Qualifications: She may be either blonde or brunette, but must be a good cook, pretty and under 26. But the foregoing combined advantages are not quite enough for chosey Joe. It is absolutely essential that she also have $20,000 so he can buy a farm.

Kentucky's Contribution

The granite block of stone in the Washington monument which was contributed by Kentucky bears the following inscription: "Under the auspices of Heaven and the precepts of Washington, Kentucky will be the last to give up the Union. United We Stand, Divided We Fall." The stone is placed on the inner wall on the 230-foot landing.

"THAT'S RIGHT — YOU'RE WRONG" STARS KAY KYSER IN HILARIOUS NEW COMEDY ROLE

Something delightfully new under the screen sun is the tuneful comedy, "That's Right — You're Wrong," which opened yesterday at the Daly City theatre.

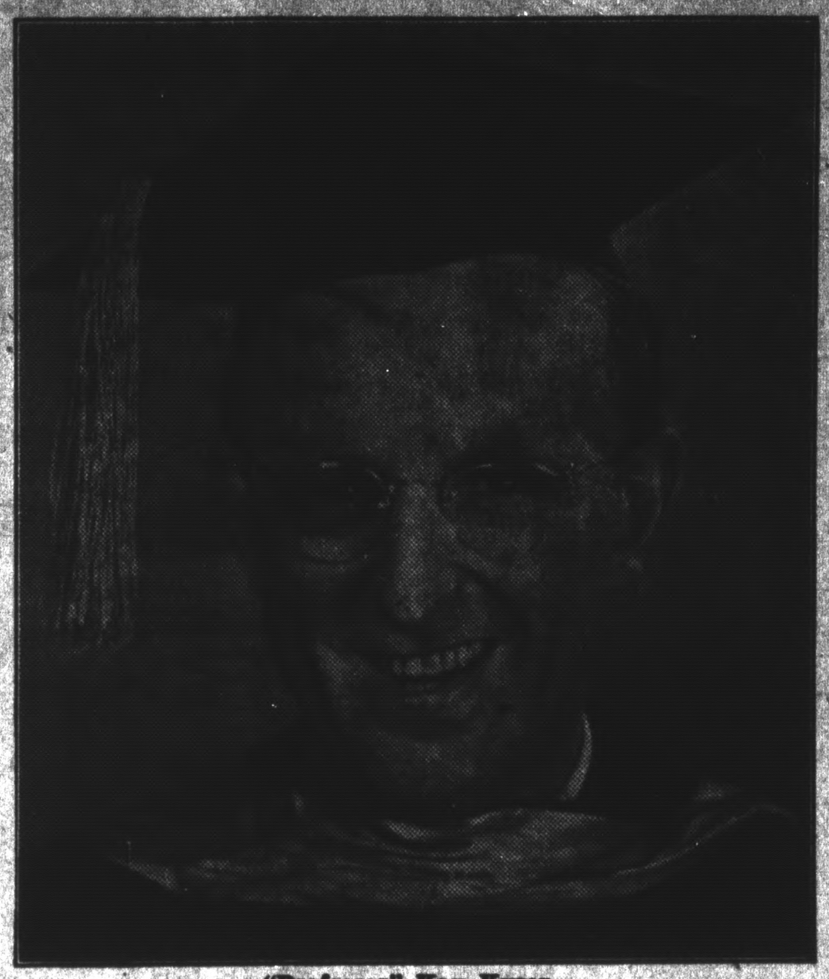

Starring Kay Kyser with his orchestra and Adolphe Menjou, the picture breaks sharply away from the conventional boy-meets-girl success-story theme on which most band leader films have been based. With engaging candor, the producers admit that such a theme is threadbare—and develop their plot around the ingenious thesis that it is impossible to find any other theme.

Consequently, the story deals with the hilarious but futile efforts of a big Hollywood film company to make a picture with Kyser and his band, and in so doing it offers gay and laughter-packed entertainment.

At first, Kyser and his followers are enthusiastic, and proceed to go Hollywood in a big way. But presently Menjou discovers that his trusted pair of scenario-writers have concocted an utterly unsuitable story for Kyser, and are unable to think up a good one.

Faced with this impasse, Menjou tries to get Kyser to tear up his contract. The batonist fights back, his maneuvers speeding up the film furiously to a hilarity-packed climax.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Ninotchka," starring Greta Garbo and Melvyn Douglas.

The SCHOOL LUNCH BOX
—and what to put in it

by Dorothy Greig

JOHNNY and Mary may get satisfactory grades in school because they "take after my side of the family". Or, they may get them largely because they are kept keen, alert and healthy by nourishing, well balanced meals.

Not that we decry the advantages of fine heredity, you understand, but the nourishing, well planned lunch Johnny and Mary had today probably has more to do with their good work this afternoon than their ancestors have.

In a lunch that is carried to school there should be a hot dish or drink. This can be hot chocolate milk or vegetable soup sent along in a thermos bottle.

Fresh fruits, such as an apple, pear, orange, banana, bring up the vitamin and mineral quota — and are easy to pack.

Stalks of celery, sprinkled with salt, stuffed with cheese and well wrapped to keep them fresh, are a tasty bite, too.

Sandwiches are the stick-to-the-ribs part of a box lunch. So we make them as nourishing as possible. Use a heavy hand with the butter. Give them thick fillings of such mixtures as cream or cottage cheese and raisins; hard cooked eggs and vegetables mixed with a little dressing; minced and chopped meats with relish; peanut butter and chopped bacon.

Here are more sandwich fillings youngsters will like. They have flavor and are easy to put together:

Minced Ham and Egg with Mushroom Sandwiches

½ cup ham, ground
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
½ can condensed cream of mushroom soup

Combine ham, eggs and cream of mushroom soup and mix thoroughly. Spread on slices of buttered bread. Makes 5-6 sandwiches.

Savory Vegetable-Bean Sandwich

1 can (16 oz.) pork and beans
1 can condensed vegetable soup
6 tablespoons salad dressing or mayonnaise

Combine the pork and beans, vegetable soup and mayonnaise. Then mix thoroughly. Makes 10-12 sandwiches.

Chopped Egg and Celery Sandwiches

4 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
½ can condensed celery soup
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Mix all the ingredients thoroughly. Spread sandwich filling on slices of buttered bread. Makes 5-6 sandwiches.

Insect Food Damage
Insect pests are estimated to ruin about 10 per cent of the world's potential food supply each year.

Second Largest Congo
The Congo river is exceeded in size only by the Amazon.

Rubber Costumes
Rubber sheeting has been successfully used for stage costumes.

What! And All for a 7-Cent Fare?

Birmingham, Ala.—Nope, it's not an airliner or a streamlined train—it's a trolley car with "oomph." Virginia Hitt, first trolley hostess on record, serves free coffee to a passenger, as part of the local traction company's effort to glamorize its system. She also opens windows and helps folks off and on. "It's all a mirage," say the pampered but pleased passengers.
